IT'S A JOLLY HOLIDAY!

Indeed, there's not a merrier time of year than now on Buena Vista Street, and citizens from Carthay Circle to Elysian Arcade are downright decking the halls in celebration of the holiday season upon us. Vintage wreaths with bells, glorious garlands, heart-warming department store windows, and a nifty fifty-foot Christmas tree light up the neighborhood with winter wonderment. And that, dear readers, is just the scarf on the snowman for this bustling boulevard of dreams.

Why, over at the swanky Elias & Co., Santa Claus himself has set up shop, taking gift requests and posing for photos with the good boys and girls of the world. And the store's new line of stylish holiday merchandise even has the zippiest of hipsters asking for wardrobe makeovers this winter. Home makeover more your speed? Then stroll over to Julius Katz & Sons for holiday home décor and the Buena Vista Street ornament headquarters. Just watch for the wig wag!

Speaking of the Red Car Trolleys, over on Carthay Circle, the Red Car Trolley News Boys are ringing in the season with their trademark electrifying enthusiasm. Only they've expanded the ol' repertoire with new holiday numbers that'll have you singing in the streets until the reindeer fly overhead.

Finally, be sure not to miss the magical tree lighting ceremony every night at 5:00 p.m. That's right, join the Buena Vista Street Community Bell Ringers and the Citizens of Buena Vista Street as they lead a carol-filled procession to the town's towering tree for a touching tradition that'll make even the stingiest Scrooges melt with memories of Christmases past.

Indeed, Buena Vista Street is the place to be for anyone seeking a truly jolly holiday this season. Be sure to check the Entertainment Times Guide for entertainment offerings and showtimes.

Candy Cane Craze at Trolley Treats!

They're back! Warm, fresh, handcrafted candy canes that bring out Buena Vistas like it's the turn of the century. Indeed, the only thing rivaling these red, white and green dandy delights is the artistry behind their creation. In case you haven't caught their act, talented Trolley Treats artisans pull and shape the minty morsels before your very eyes, right there in the shop windows! And if you're one of the lucky citizens to happen to secure one of these limited holiday delectables, boy are you in for a treat!

Guests hoping to purchase a fresh made candy cane should obtain a wristband outside Trolley Treats at Park opening. At that time, Guests will also be presented with a time frame, in which they will need to return to make the purchase. Candy canes will be made at Disney California Adventure Park on Nov. 29, as well as Dec. 1, 6, 8, 13, 15, 20, 22, and 25, 2014. These highly sought after holiday treats are only available while supplies last. Theme Park admission is required.

And of course, candy canes are just the first stop on the tracks here at Trolley Treats this holiday season. Other traditional favorites such as peppermint bark, snowman cake pops, and holiday-inspired caramel apples like the Olaf apple will be offered through January 6, 2015 so catch a Red Car over to Buena Vista Street today!

"I" on Food with Inglebert Irving

Caballero Cuisine

Recently, my three friends Donald, Panchito, and José invited me to experience a traditional Latino holiday meal together. As anyone who's ever read my column knows, I prefer to dine alone. Especially during special holiday meals. But somehow they managed to convince me to fly the coop without molting. Nevertheless, I wouldn't agree to part with my permanent scowl.

Arriving at the festive, sprawling piazzas of Paradise Gardens, I realized I'd been had. My mischievous amigos had abducted me to partake in the annual Disney ¡Viva Navidad!, a whimsical Latin-inspired party filled with live music, colorful dancers, towering Mojiganga puppets, and of course food. Lots of food. Which I would make the ire of my evening.

Try as I did, however, I discovered nothing but bold, exotic, flavorful offerings. Offerings like the delightfully complex Sopas de Barbacoa, and the homemade Pozole, rich with unique textures of hominy and cumin. And the made-from-scratch Aztec treat, Sweet Pineapple and Golden Raisin Tamales, which I naturally washed down with a chocolatey holiday Champurrado. All offerings that would surprisingly melt my icy winter exterior and inspire me to join the fiesta.

And before I knew it, I was so deep in a feathery folklorico fantasy that I couldn't even locate my precious scowl. Of course, I owed it all to my dear friends. But to admit it to them and agree to attend the event again next year? Yes, somehow they managed to quack that out of me as well.

I award the cuisine of Disney ¡Viva Navidad! my highest recommendation and suggest a prompt visit before the holiday season ends.

Inglebert also recommends these holiday offerings:

- The Macaroni & Cheese Cone, an edible bread cone filled with creamy macaroni & cheese with roasted bacon at Cozy Cone Motel in Cars Land.
- The refreshing Triple Berry Smoothie, a blend of fresh cranberries, cranberry juice, cranberry sauce and vanilla ice cream topped with a drizzle of caramel sauce at Schmoozies in Hollywood Land.
- The Turkey Dip served on a potato grinder roll, with provolone cheese and turkey au jus for dipping and a side of pasta salad at Flo's V8 Café.
- The Roasted Heirloom Beet Salad with Mild Laura Chenel Goat Cheese, Petite Arugula, Arbequina Olive Oil and Late Harvest Riesling Mist at Alfresco Tasting Terrace for December.

Letters to Santa

Dear Santa,

My lovely dog, Lady, and I love Christmas more than any time of the year. We truly believe it's the profound and inspirational spirit of giving that makes this time so very special. If you could please bring Lady the customary load of biscuits, a new jeweled collar and leash, and one of those fully-furnished, art deco dog mansions we've seen recently in magazines, it would be much appreciated. I have sent my list through the mail, as it could be inaccurately perceived to be too extensive for this forum.

Selflessly,
Donna the Dog Lady

Dear Santa,

I've been very busy issuing Holiday Good Behavior Citations to the orderly citizens of Buena Vista Street this season, and I can assure you the people here all belong on your "nice" list. Between you and me, I sometimes consider myself one of your watchful elves, if a bit oversized. If you'd ever like a second opinion on someone or have any seasonal employment opportunities, please let me know. I'd be happy to oblige as always.

Officially,
Calvin the Cop

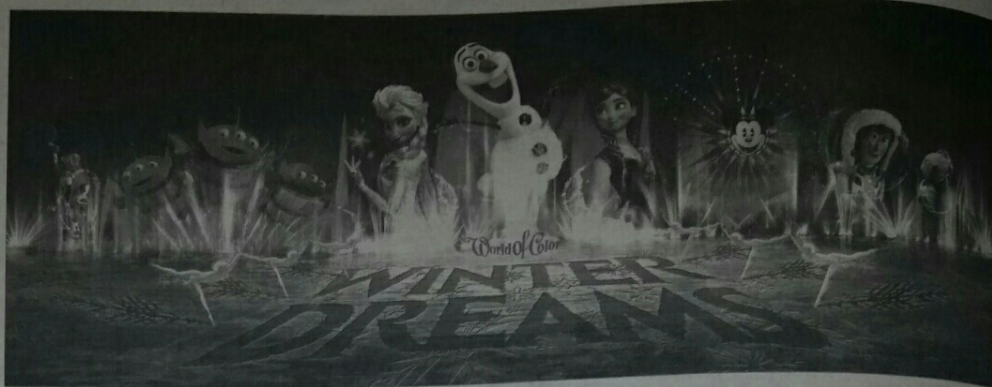

Dear Santa,

I've collected so many letters to you this holiday season, I don't know how you're possibly going to read them all. Anyway, I just wanted to give you a heads up and suggest a good speed reading course until they arrive. And maybe you could bring me an extra mail sack for Christmas this year.

Merrily,
Molly the Messenger

"World of Color Winter Dreams" Returns!

Indeed, those purveyors of the prismatic have done it again! The community of Paradise Pier has returned the heart-warming nighttime holiday spectacular to their chilly coastlines just in time for the holidays. And visitors from near and far are enjoying the vibrant nostalgic journey like never before.

Escorted by everybody's favorite snowman, Olaf from Walt Disney Animation Studio's "Frozen," "World of Color - Winter Dreams" whisks you away to a musical winter wonderland filled with lighting, water, pyro, and snow effects, all colliding to create a truly unique presentation of classic Disney films and surprising holiday show-stoppers. "World of Color - Winter Dreams" enchants Paradise Bay nightly until January 6. Check the Entertainment Times Guide for showtimes. Fastpasses are available at the Grizzly River Run FastPass ticket distribution area, and World of Color dining packages, featuring reserved viewing areas, can be enjoyed at Ariel's Grotto, Carthay Circle Restaurant and Wine Country Trattoria. Who Knew? The Buzz with Gayle & Gail Top 5 Holiday Must Do's!

Speaking of enlightened, the holiday version of the Cars Land lighting ceremony is an undeniable must do. With all the eclectic holiday décor and toe tapping tunes throughout, this daily dusk delight is certain to receive your glowing review.

And since it's always better to give than receive, how about lending your

A must do. That's right, dearies, a special something you absolutely must partake in, at the risk of changing your astrological path forever. Going on a date with Clark Gable. Crashing a Carthay Circle Theater world premiere. Putting on bloomers one foot at a time. Lovely, Gayle. Thanks, Gail.

But at this time of year, there are simply so many must do's, what's one to do? Well, leave that to the professionals, dearies. Just you grab that peppermint mocha at the F&E P, pull up a chair, and prepare to be enlightened.

voice to the Buena Vista Street Bell Ringers, as they carol around the Buena Vista Street Christmas tree during the town tree lighting ceremony? From the pitchiest pipes to the breathiest baritones, all comers are welcomed with holiday warmth.

Breathing is important, needless to say, so how about a holiday hike through the clean fresh timbers of Redwood Creek Challenge Trail. Ah, indeed, Christmas trees in their purest, natural form. If only a steamy, single lumberjack would cross my path.

The arousing aroma flowing from Clarabelle's Hand-Scooped Ice Cream, on the other hand, leads us to our next must do. And catch it quick, dearies, because it's a limited time only release. That's right, Clarabelle's famous holiday ice cream bars and cones hand dipped in chocolate and rolled in crushed peppermint candy! And with their wide array of delectable, customizable options, you can create a wintery treat like no other!

Naturally, there's nothing like creativity, dearies, which this brings us to our final holiday must do. Capture that favorite holiday memory! Indeed, find that special holiday somewhere in the parks, grab that special holiday someone, and show off those pearly whites together for a Disney PhotoPass® photographer. Then head on over to Kingswell Camera Shop on Buena Vista Street, use the Disney PhotoPass® service to the get the shots you need, and spread the joy to loved ones everywhere.

And that, dearies, is how to do a holiday must do list. We know, you can thank us later. Until next time, we'll see you on the streets. And as always, your secrets are safe with us.

CELEBRITY SIGHTINGS! Frosty Fashions!

Snowy's Seasonal Slant!

A top hat, two eyes made of coal, and a carrot nose. What every snow man is sporting, everyone except the courageous Snowy the Snowcar. Who else has the steer-clear sense to put a hazard cone at the center of their holiday ensemble? Hit the brakes at Cars Land and admire him for yourself.

Green Men Chic!

Really, what's more stylish than wearing green during the holidays? Definitely steal this look, fashionistas! And be sure to march by Paradise Pier to enlist in Operation: Playtime! On the double.

Chip and Dale In Nifty Neckwear!

Scarfing around for acorns just got a whole new meaning. As if these cheerful chipmunks wouldn't pull it off like bows on bright packages. In vintage, no less. Scamper on down to Buena Vista Street and crack their act today.

Package Check Service

After shopping, check your purchases for pickup later in the day at Elias & Co. Resort hotel Guests may have purchases delivered to Bell Services for next-day pickup after 7 a.m. Certain restrictions apply.

Local Spotlight:

ELIAS & CO

Nothing transforms during the holidays like Buena Vista Street cornerstone Elias & Co. Why, the entire department store becomes a winter wonderland that captures the hearts of children and adults alike. From the first glimpse of the detailed store windows, which feature the telling of the classic story 'Twas The Night Before Christmas, it is clear store owner Elias Walter Parr spared no expense.

Once inside, the swanky shopping mecca we all know and love seems to fade away, as colorful festive décor and merchandise find themselves at the forefront - vibrant stockings hung with care, sparkling tree toppers hoping for a home, and whimsical nutcrackers salivating at the thought of a roasted chestnut soiree.

Around the corner, Santa Claus himself has taken over. Having just flown in for the holidays, Santa and his playful elves have brought the look of the North Pole with them. A glorious chair, surrounded by tinsel touches will turn even the naughtiest into nice by the time they reach the front of the line. Once there, the big bowlful of jelly is eager to take photos and gift requests until December 24th. And the elves are equally prepared with candy cane giveaways, direct from Santa's Workshop no less.

So whether it be holiday T's, headwear, collectibles, or just some good old-fashioned holiday atmosphere this season, Elias & Co. is the place to be. Elias & Co. is located on Carthay Circle near the Partners statue on Buena Vista Street.

Light My Way

Travels with Phippi Francis Of Décor and Decorum

I'm always on the lookout for the indigenous during the holidays. The authentically unique. The unabashedly honest. For at their core, holidays are about expressionism and creativity, and they should be captured as such. And while the festive décor of exotic holidays around the world have graced my lens, it was a recent California road trip that inspired me to share this year.

Naturally, nothing says seasons greetings like a traditional pine holiday garland. However, upon arriving at the quaint desert town of Radiator Springs, I had the privilege of being greeted with garlands crafted from motor filters, decorative snowflakes forged from tire irons, and Christmas trees teetering as towers of whitewall radials. And while they may not have been for the faint of grease, they were undeniably full of heart. And most importantly, true to those who created them.

Continuing to the whimsical coastal town of Paradise Pier, I discovered garland inspired by the surrounding seas. Colorful shells, bubbled, transparent ornaments, and hanging paths suggestive of rolling waves were woven through buildings and gateways, welcoming travelers to the holidays in a manner only the locals had chosen to celebrate.

And finally, what would a California road trip be without a jaunt through the fabulous Hollywood Land? Whether glitz and glamour get your motor running or not, the town undeniably knows what it is. Vibrant tinsel wreaths and garland up and down the boulevard, it's a shimmering seasonal display fit for the stars. And one I'll be sure to bring shades for next trip.

Heading for home, I began to wonder what my holiday expression should hold. I, of all people, could not conform to the mundane. And as I sat down at my dinner table that evening, I realized all I had to do was look around and be open. I gathered a pile of cubed flash bulbs, a length of colorful fabric from Sri Lanka, and some miniature glass-blown animals from Venice, and I began to create.

Character Craze at "Disney ¡Viva Navidad!"

And how! Not only have the Three Caballeros (Donald Duck, Panchito Pistoles, and José Carioca) landed on Paradise Gardens for this annual celebration of Latino cultures, they'll be joined by the likes of Mickey and Minnie Mouse in their finest festival attire. You may even spot Matador Goofy! It'll be a social event so spectacular, you'll need elbow pads for all the rubbing you're bound to do. And, as if that wasn't enough, this year's festival is so loaded with mariachis, samba musicians, folklorico dancers, carnival dancers, and larger-than-life "Mojiganga" puppets that when the high-energy street party finally arrives, you're going to be swept away in a swirling seasonal celebration like none you've ever experienced before.

Be sure to catch Disney ¡Viva Navidad! in Paradise Pier, daily from now through Three Kings Day Celebration (Día de los Reyes) on January 3-6, 2015. Check the Entertainment Times Guide for specific character appearances and show times.

NOW SHOWING at Disney California Adventure Park This Winter

Special Holiday Entertainment

Buena Vista Street

Red Car Trolley News Boys - *

Our own News Boys leap off the historic Red Car Trolley and pound the pavement of Buena Vista Street, peddling papers and performing a variety of authentic period tunes. What's more, spirited young Hollywood hopeful Mickey Mouse, who's just stepped off the train, makes a surprise appearance and joins in the fun!

Five & Dime - *

This talented bunch of working-class buddies played their way down Route 66 to Los Angeles, hoping for their big break. After they met a sensational female singer ("Dime") at the local variety store, their band instantly made "cents." These swingin' "hepcats" jazz up 1920s & '30s tunes from the back of their makeshift jalopy and cheer anyone who'll sing and dance along.

Citizens of Buena Vista Street - *

Buena Vista Street is a boulevard of dreams ... and dreamers! The citizens who populate the area, are preparing for the holidays, interacting with Guests and creating impromptu laughs, smiles ... and memories, wherever they go. They reflect, in a variety of ways, aspects of California, and, in a greater sense, the resilient American spirit.

Buena Vista Street Community Bell Ringers - *

Join the Community Bell Ringers throughout the day, as they sing holiday tunes and ring joyous seasonal bells.

Buena Vista Street Holiday Tree Lighting - *

Holiday bells ring as the community of Buena Vista Street invites everyone to join together in a heartfelt tree lighting tradition. Daily at 5pm.

Santa at Elias & Co. - *

Children of all ages are invited to share their holiday wishes with Santa Claus at Buena Vista Street's Elias & Co.!

Character Greetings - *

Buena Vista Street is alive with optimism and opportunity. Something good is just around the corner, Mickey Mouse is "just getting started" in making big dreams come true. His pals Goofy, Pluto and Chip 'n' Dale are always up for a swell adventure. Don't they look snazzy in their spiffy new holiday outfits? They're the bee's knees! The cat's pajamas!

Cars Land

Red to the Rescue

Big and red on the outside, gentle and warm on the inside, Red the Fire Truck from Disney-Pixar's "Cars" arrives with sirens blaring, to water the flowers and clean up the streets of Radiator Springs! You're invited to meet him, take pictures and enjoy some "good clean fun!"

DJ's Dance 'n' Drive

Reports are coming in from the sleepy town of Radiator Springs that ultimate party car DJ has been shifting things into high gear. DJ's giant speakers and built-in disc changer guarantee a dance party will break out wherever he goes. And when he spins hits like "Life Is a Highway" and "Car Wash," he's bound to get everyone in Cars Land shaking their chassis to smooth moves like the Merge, the Rubberneck and the Fishtail.

Cars Land Lighting

Each evening as night falls over Cars Land, don't miss a special moment showcasing the beautiful neon lights and views of Radiator Springs. Excellent viewing is available all along Route 66 at dusk.

Character Greetings - *

Our two favorite four-fendered friends, Holiday Mater and Lightning McQueen, appear in Cars Land ... taking time from their busy road trips to meet Guests and pose for photos! Here, in the heart of Route 66, they can frequently be found parked in front of the Cozy Cone Motel, where they interact with everyone - revving their engines, blowing their horns and having a grand ol' time!
