DIAMOND CELEBRATION DAZZLES

Fresh off the spectacular all-night party to kick off our Diamond Celebration, citizens from Elysian Arcade to Paradise Pier have prepared to dazzle all summer long! The Disneyland® Resort Diamond Celebration honors our 60 years of making dreams come true and encourages all of us to be 'forever young'. So whether you are 6 or 60, this is the place to celebrate!

Pixie dust has been sprinkled throughout Buena Vista Street in preparation for the celebration. The Carthay Circle Theatre now glistens and gleams with diamond décor to commemorate the Diamond Celebration and has its own Diamond emblem on its iconic tower. And special photo locations have been created to capture your Diamond Celebration memories at Grizzly River Run and California Screamin'.

Indeed, no one enjoys a celebration more than the citizens of Buena Vista Street. Officials at the Chamber of Commerce released "We're celebrating not just the last 60 years, but all that is yet to come". Mortimer from Mortimer's Market exclaimed in his signature high pitched voice, "Oh boy, I just love a big celebration! The bigger, the better, I always say!" We have to agree! Now is the time to be here. After all, there's nothing like a Disney celebration!

"I" on Food with Inglebert Irving Mediterranean Fare at Paradise Garden Grill

It's not often that I venture outdoors during this season, as temperatures rise and humanity fills the streets. I prefer to remain indoors, respectfully unwilted, un-ruffled and uninterrupted by crowds. So imagine the depths of my delight when my lovely editor suggested I break from my peaceful solitude and venture across town to write about the fare at Paradise Garden Grill. I thought of declining the request momentarily but the emptiness of my fine leather billfold goaded me on. So, armed with my writer's pad and pen of sardonicism, I was off to another epicurean adventure.

I made a surprisingly short journey to the Paradise Garden Grill and was welcomed by cypress trees shading a quaint piazza and live musicians playing at the Paradise Garden Bandstand. Families were gathered enjoying the food, music and the shade of the piazza. I found myself charmed by the atmosphere. But it was the food that I was there for, and I would not be seduced by mere aesthetics.

I perused the menu which specialized in Mediterranean skewered meats and vegetables. I took note of the vegetable and tofu skewer and the beef gyro platter but decided to partake in a perfectly grilled and seasoned Lemon-Oregano Chicken Skewer served with Rice Pilaf, a refreshing cucumber

Inglebert also recommends:

- Flo's V8 Café - BBQ Pork Ribs with house-made Coca-Cola® BBQ sauce served with mashed potatoes and signature coleslaw and one of Flo's famous house-made pies like Flo's Signature Chocolate Mud Pie-O-Rama.
- Boardwalk Field Greens - Fresh greens, tomatoes, blue cheese, cucumbers dried Craisins® cranberries and golden raisins, caramelized pecans and a basil vinaigrette at Boardwalk Pizza & Pasta.
- Enjoy a unique experience at Alfresco Tasting Terrace with appetizers like the Wine Country Shrimp served with Polenta and a Lemon-Caper Butter Sauce and a wine flight trio featuring selections from the Disney Family of Wines.

salad, Pita Bread and choice of sauce: Moroccan Chili, Chimichurri or Tzatziki. I could not resist the Baklava, a greek pastry filled with chopped walnuts and dipped in an orange-flower flavored syrup. I must say, it did not disappoint.

I lingered here for quite a while, enjoying the music and surprisingly the large area had private nooks and crannies which somehow gave me a feeling of being removed from the hustle and bustle around me. Needless to say, I give Paradise Garden Grill my highest recommendation and suggest a visit right away. Paradise Garden Grill is located at Paradise Gardens near Goofy's Sky School.

WHEN THE BUGLE CALLS ...

By Marty Sklar
Disney Legend and former Imagineer

Even before Disneyland® Park opened, Walt Disney knew that a "main street" needed a hometown newspaper. That's how I was hired one month before Disneyland opened on July 17, 1955. The newspaper I edited was called The Disneyland News, and it sold for 10 cents to Guests on Main Street, U.S.A. when Disneyland began.

Years later, we created Vacationland magazine, and although it had a different purpose – it was distributed to hotels and motels within a day's drive of Disneyland – the newspaper was no more. I miss those newsy little stories and behind the scenes tidbits; there's something about a hometown paper that lets you know "these are my friends and neighbors" – here's what they're doing and what's important to them.

Now there's the Buena Vista Bugle.

I wanted to know about the name. So I looked it up in my big Random House Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, and lo and behold, the explanation: "Bugle – to call by or with a bugle." Of course! This is the call to our Disney California Adventure® Park Guests that this Bugle is the "insider" newspaper calling all of you to know more, tell more and enjoy more. This is your "hometown newspaper" for the new Disney California Adventure® Park.

Our certified nurses at First Aid remind us that it's hot out there.

As temperatures rise, so should your awareness of how to stay safe in the sun. One of the most common reasons that people visit us is dehydration. Staying hydrated is an important part of ensuring you have a fun day in the heat.

Here are some tips:

- Stay hydrated
- Find shaded areas to take a break in a cool environment during the hottest times of the day
- Wear a wide brimmed hat to keep your head and face cool
- Generously apply sun-screen with an SPF of at least 30 or higher

Light My Way

Travels with Phiphi Francis

Adventure Awaits Grizzly Peak

I felt a pull at my heart and a longing for adventure. It was summer and time for my light to wander, to seek a new story to tell, or photo to take, or adventure to experience. It was time to follow my light, like I had done so many times before. And so, I packed up my worldly belongings, my scarf from Florence, shoes from Micronesia my sketchbook and pencils from Paris, and of course my most precious possession of all, my camera.

I meandered, waiting for my light to illuminate my next move, when I saw it, a wooden sign welcoming me to Grizzly Peak the allure of tall, shady trees and large granite walls drew me in. I found myself at Grizzly Peak Airfield, a mountain airstrip which was home to courageous aerial firefighters who protect the wilderness and its creatures.

My first stop was to experience 'Soarin' Over California'. Here I was introduced to inspirational stories of aviation heroes and innovators. Inspired by these brave aviators I challenged myself to experience the feeling of free flight. Before you knew it, I was lifted up through the clouds and felt the sensation of hang gliding above land, sea and sky. I glided over the diverse wonders of the Golden State, such as the Golden Gate Bridge, Yosemite National Park and the towering California Redwoods. A gentle wind rushed through my hair and the smell of citrus groves and pine trees filled the air. It was exhilarating.

Still flushed with excitement, I headed across the road to the welcome center and supply store called 'Humphrey's Service & Supplies' where an accommodating and nature loving ranger informed me of what the rest of the area had to offer. "Hungry travelers can grab a bite to eat at Smokejumpers Grill" he began "It may be a repurposed airplane hangar, but the cook there makes the best Bacon Cheddar Burgers and Smokin' Onion Rings in town! And make sure to pick up after yourself, as we have the utmost respect for Mother Nature around here!" He continued, "And just around the bend is the Redwood Creek Challenge Trail, a two-acre, recreation area dedicated to outdoor fun and discovery. And... if you're up for adventure, the lockers nearby (which offered free use for the first 2 hours) so as not to get my belongings wet and I thankfully obliged.

Once I arrived at the loading area of 'Grizzly River Run', I joined several other thrill seekers in an 8 person raft. We buckled in for a journey along a runaway river. My heart raced as we careened over foaming torrents, through mountain caverns, past roaring waterfalls and heart thudding drops through river gorges. Screams of laughter and delight filled the air as water rushed around me and my fellow adventurers.

As we approached the end of our journey, I let out a sigh as I was fulfilled. My light had once again led me to the place I needed to go most, a place to soar above the doldrums of city life, to reconnect and appreciate the beauty of Mother Nature, and to let go and laugh with new friends and fellow adventurers. My light once again shined brightly, indeed.

you should try white river rafting at 'Grizzly River Run'. My eyes brightened, and we both knew where my next destination would be. Before setting off the ranger recommended using

Madness Returns for Diamond Celebration

The Mad Hatter has assembled the most talented band this side of Wonderland, and the heart-pounding, live music features contemporary, classic rock and some Disney favorites all with a mad twist. Fan favorite lead singers, Alice and the Mad Hatter return to bring madness back to Hollywood Land!
