FALL FABOULOUS FALL

LOCAL BUSINESSES DAZZLE WITH SPIRITED OFFERINGS

Citizens from Elysian Arcade to Paradise Pier are celebrating this delightfully spirited season. Shopkeepers have been busy dreaming up spiffy costumes and terrifying treats that are sure to please both boos and ghouls alike. Emerging holiday "Halloween" has become the latest boo-n to businesses on Buena Vista Street and merchants have been filling their traditional shelves with hauntingly fun offerings.

In fact, Los Feliz Five & Dime has expanded their standard wares to include the candy pumpkins, Halloween themed mugs and candy dishes that are simply to die for. And that's just the candle wick in the old pumpkin. So, keep a keen eye out as there is so much more to adore here on Buena Vista Street!

Indeed, in addition to celebrating the fall season, citizens are still feeling the glow of the Diamond Celebration, celebrating 60 years of Disney magic. The revelry of the celebration continues and you can enjoy the dazzling décor and entertainment. Like the new songs added to Five & Dime on Buena Vista Street: the madness of the Diamond Celebration at Hollywood Land; and the new water spectacular "World of Color-Celebrate! The Wonderful World of Walt Disney" at Paradise Bay. It's all happening now! With so many options, this is the place to be!

Mickey's Dream Girl Arrives on Buena Vista Street

That positively positive cinema charmer Mickey Mouse who recently arrived with just a suitcase and a dream, and refreshing "can do" attitude has done it again! He appears daily with the Red Car Trolley News Boys on Buena Vista Street. This street act recently added new songs to their act just in time for the Diamond Celebration. One of the acts showcases Mickey telling the Newsboys about his dream to meet someone sweet, kind, and pretty. Well, guess who shows up? None other than Minnie! Indeed, Mickey, if you can dream it, you can do it! See the Times Guide for Entertainment and Character Greeting Times.

Trolley Treats:

Terrifyingly Tasty Treats

Owners of Trolley Treats, husband and wife team, Carol and Woody Hoffenberger have been working with their team of candy makers to create delightfully wicked treats for Halloween. "Halloween has become one of our busiest seasons, and we want to make sure we have just the right treats to fill your goodie bag!" said Carol.

These creative confectioners offer seasonal favorites like pumpkin fudge, pumpkin spice brittle, and uniquely shaped cake pops that look like pumpkins, Jack Skellingtons, Maleficents and more! Those clever folks have also mummified the traditional Mickey Mouse crispy treat into ghastly goodness. This traditional treat has been wrapped in white chocolate with candy-coated chocolate eyes peering underneath "bandages" of white chocolate, a treat your "mummy" would be proud of!

And if that doesn't tantalize your sweet tooth, keep an eyeball peeled for their latest creations inspired by Dia de Los Muertos. The Skeleton Apple, Cake Pop and Rice Krispy Treat. Bag these items while you can as these are only available for a limited time. Catch a Red Car Trolley to Trolley Treats located on Buena Vista Street to fill your goodie bag today!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

There are so many packages that I must deliver this Halloween, I'm very nervous that I may deliver the wrong package to someone who is deserving of a treat but gets a trick instead. Oh my, this truly is a tricky season! I apologize in advance in case you get the wrong package.

Sincerely,
Molly the Messenger

Dear Editor,

Calvin the Cop here, wanting all the citizens to know that I am keeping a close eye on Buena Vista Street during this tip toppert of seasons. I just hope that everyone is on their best behavior as I'm looking forward to giving out my share of good behavior tickets.

Officially,
Calvin the Cop

Dear Editor,

My lovely dog, Lady and I enjoy strolling down Buena Vista Street to see all the smart citizens in their clever costumes. I was so inspired by the masqueraders that I got Lady her very own witch costume. But mind you, there is not one wicked bone in my sweet Lady's body. In fact, she's the dearest witch in town!

Lovingly,
Donna the Dog Lady

Who Knew?

Top Four Fall Favorites

Harvest Moon, black cats and Jack O' Lanterns, those are the standard fare for fall but listen up dearies as we have the scoop on our top four favorite things for the season. That's right, boys and girlie girls, grab that Pumpkin Spice Latte and Mickey Bat Cookie from the Fiddler, Fifer & Practical Café and you are well on your way to experiencing our top four fabulous fall favorites! You heard it, our first stop, just about any time of year, but especially during the fall season is Fiddler, Fifer & Practical Café. Their lattes and seasonal treats are a great way to start or end your day.

Our next stop for fall is at the Animation Academy in Hollywood Land where Disney Artists share their tips and techniques to draw some of your favorite characters. No matter what your skill level, they have a way of teaching even the novice how to draw. A circle here, a grimacing grin there and you've got one of our favorite scares of the season, Jack Skellington!

The Buzz with Gayle & Gail

Then, if you are not faint of heart, try the heart pounding exhilaration of the appropriately named California Screamin' on Paradise Pier. An exhilarating roller coaster attraction with a loop de loop that is sure to tickle your uvula.

And at the top of our list for fall, keep this one on the Q.T. people, take a Red Car Trolley to Hollywood Land and check into the Hollywood Tower Hotel. Step onto the elevator, if you dare, and head to the thirteenth floor. You've just entered the Twilight Zone®! And here's the best part, if you should scream, don't worry....as always, your secrets are safe with us. The Twilight Zone Tower of Terror™ is located in Hollywood Land, near Hyperion Theater.

The Twilight Zone® is a registered trademark of CBS, Inc. and used with permission pursuant to a license with CBS, Inc.

Fiendishly Fun Food

Chefs have been busy conjuring up seasonal items that you'll want to sink your fangs into. Head over to Hollywood Land for a Caramel Apple Smoothie at Schmoozies. Real apples, caramel and ice cream combine to tempt you in this sweet and tangy concoction. If that doesn't satisfy your sweet tooth, cruise on over to Cozy Cone Motel in Cars Land for a twisted delight. Flakey pastry twisted with pumpkin spice, pumpkin and brown sugar, this one is sure to please the pumpkin lover in you.

Looking for something more substantial? Take a stroll over to Paradise Pier for the fiendishly clever Anti-Vampire Chicken Pizza with roasted garlic sauce, chicken, smoked Gouda, Mozzarella, roasted red peppers and a drizzle of tomato Harissa sauce. You can toss that garlic necklace for this olfactory feast. Finish it off with a creamy pumpkin cheesecake at Boardwalk Pizza & Pasta.

Speaking of fangs, check out the overbite on this Vampire Mickey souvenir popcorn bucket. What little goblin wouldn't want to take this home? They've also wrapped popcorn buckets and hot mugs with artwork inspired from 'Lonesome Ghosts,' a Disney-animated cartoon from 1937. These fun souvenir items can only be found here in Disney California Adventure! These offerings materialize for a limited time only get yours soon before they disappear!

Treasures in Paradise: Costume Headquarters

Looking to be the Belle of the ball? Swashbuckling pirate more your style? Treasures in Paradise located on Paradise Pier has just the costume for your little princess or pirate. That's right, the store has become Costume Headquarters and has a variety of children's costumes now available.

Belle, Snow White, Sleeping Beauty, and Cinderella, are just a few of the fantastic costumes, they have there! Tiaras, shoes, and gloves complete the ensemble. "Aye" patches, pirate hats and swords can also be found to dress your lil' matey. And your Halloween Bounty just isn't complete without a pumpkin bucket to light up the night. Indeed, Treasures in Paradise has stocked their shelves for the season, but come quickly as Halloween items are only here for a limited time and while supplies last. Happy Haunting everybody!

New neighbors to Cruise into Radiator Springs

Artist Concept Only ©Disney/Pixar

Citizens of Cars Land have been speculating on what is happening behind the walls in Radiator Springs. Well, listen up, boys and girlie girls, we've got the scoop right here! We were told that our favorite Fiat, Luigi has been vacationing in Italy. But, according to Radiator Springs news reporter Otto Anchor, "Some exciting news has just coasted into Radiator Springs". Otto reports that "Luigi has invited all of his cugini (cousins) from his hometown of Carsoli, Italy, to visit his Casa della Tires. To help celebrate Race Day in Radiator Springs, they will demonstrate the dances of their village with Cars Land Guests when the all-new Luigi's Rollickin' Roadsters opens early next year! How's that for fender bending news! Otto also provided us with a sneak peek at some concept art and we can't wait to roll with our new neighbors!

The Rumor is True! Newfangled Mobile App Has Arrived

Yes folks, it's true! The future is here... and it's called the "Disneyland® app." Now folks can go beyond paper... beyond print... and enjoy the Disneyland® Resort in a swell new way!

This 100% electronic invention lets you see the whole park on that gizmo you've been hauling around in your trouser pocket. Eyewitnesses are saying it's like something right out of the 21st century. Amaze your pals! Impress the kids! They won't believe their blinkers!

You can enjoy thrilling features like attraction wait times and entertainment schedules. And keep those autograph books handy! The app magically knows when and where Disney Characters are appearing throughout the parks. Make waiting in ticket lines a thing of the past—now you can buy tickets using the app, flash your gizmo at the Main Entrance and step right in!

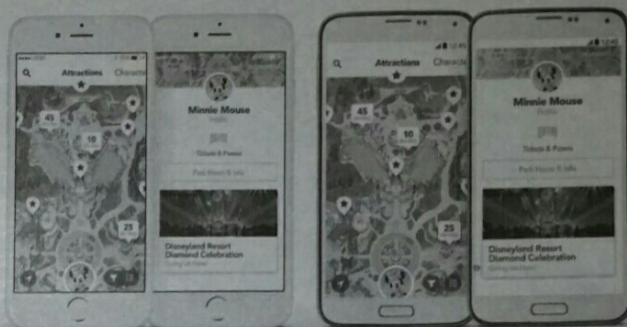

What's next, folks? A man on the moon? Just imagine the possibilities!
